From Tuesday April 7, to Saturday April 11, 1761.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th Day of April, 1761,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

This Day the two following Lords Lieutenants took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, viz.

Essex, William Henry Earl of Rochford.

West Riding of York, and City of York, and County of the same, Charles Marquess of Rockingham.

St. James's, April 11.

The four following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty, to express our deep and sincere Concern for the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, under whose glorious Administration we enjoyed all the Blessings of Freedom, Security, and Happiness.

The heavy Affliction that oppressed us on this melancholy Occasion, could only be removed by our Dependance on your Majesty, whose eminent and conspicuous Virtues insure to us all the Happiness that an indulgent Prince can confer on a loving and grateful People.

We most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, which must ever retain its present Splendor, when filled by a Prince of your distinguished Abilities.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall constantly endeavour, by our Loyalty to your Sacred Person, and Zeal for your Service, and the Support of your Government, to deserve and obtain the Continuation of your Royal Favour, and Protection, which we have so happily enjoyed under your glorious Ancestors; and that we shall ever be ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, our present happy Constitution in Church and State, which we can only hope to maintain, under a Prince of the Illustrious House of Hanover.

[Price Nine-pence.]

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen of the Queen's County and Kingdom of Ireland, at a General Assizes and General Goal Delivery held at Maryborough, in and for the said County, the 20th Day of March, 1761.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these your Kingdoms; a Blessing, which only could retrieve the great Loss of our most excellent Sovereign of glorious Memory.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and happy, that so inestimable a Blessing may be continued to your People: And may we never want one of the Illustrious House of Hanover to sway the Sceptre of Great Britain and Ireland.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Meath, assembled at an Assize held at Trim the 28th of February, 1761.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects of the County of Meath, take the earliest Opportunity to express our Loyalty to your Sacred Person, and our Attachment to your Illustrious Family.

The Necessity of raising a Protestant Succession to the Throne of these Realms, for Preservation of Religion and Liberty, cast all discerning Eyes upon your Majesty's Illustrious House: Happy for these Kingdoms, that the next Protestant Heir to the Crown was of an House, where Justice, Mercy, Courage, and every Virtue, were united by Providence, to save from Destruction the only Nations of Spirit to retain the ancient Parliamentary Form of Government; once a general Blessing to Europe, now the manifest Foundation of that permanent Wealth, Strength, and Dignity, conspicuous in the Monarchy of Britain.

No Part of your Majesty's extensive Dominions felt higher Joy than the Protestant Subjects of this Kingdom, at the Accession of King George the First; nor could that happy Event be more animating to any of his Subjects, than it was to the Protestants of this County, who, for a Series of Years, incessantly exerted themselves in Support of the Protestant Succession.

A just Sense of the last Reign must raise in every generous Mind, the most grateful Remembrance of that upright and merciful Prince, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather; under whom the Subjects of this Kingdom freely enjoyed their Publick and Private Rights, little then or now remaining, but to participate of thoſe Benefits which flow on a Sifter-Country, from a Conſtitutional Limitation of Parliaments.

Subjects cannot have ſtronger Confidence or higher Hopes in a Monarch, than we have in your Majeſty. Our Confidence and our Hopes are juſtly founded on your Majeſty's ſingular Virtue, and your early Efforts to ſuppreſs National Vices: Unconquerable, in human Appearance, but by Royal Example. Your moſt auſpicious Example portends no leſs than Reſtoration of the Morals of your People, which cannot fail to produce every Thing great, happy, and glorious, to your Dominions, and render your Reign moſt eminently diſtinguiſhed in the Britiſh Annals.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, aſſembled at an Aſſizes held in and for the County of Lowth, the 6th of March 1761.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, in your Kingdom of Ireland, at their firſt General Meeting ſince your Sacred Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to your Throne, moved with the deep Senſe of Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the Government of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Loſs of a Life ſo valuable and important; and at the ſame Time to offer our Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors of theſe Kingdoms.

We feel, in common with all our Fellow Subjects, the higheſt Satisfaction from thoſe gracious Declarations ſo early made, of your Majeſty's tender and paternal Care of our civil and religious Rights and Liberties, from your Majeſty's peculiar Virtues, ſo early inculcated from good Example in diſcountenancing national Vices, the ſureſt Method to promote national Virtues.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as far as in us lies, we will, with all Chearfulneſs, and to our utmoſt Ability, maintain and ſupport your Majeſty's Rights, and thoſe of your Royal Houſe, in Succeſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; and pray, that by a long and glorious Reign, your People may feel all thoſe Bleſſings which cannot fail to be ſhowered down upon them from ſo gracious and ſo good a King.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Meaſles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.
